TRIBUTE TO MY TWIN SISTER

I cannot explain how broken my heart is at this point in my life. Our journey together began way before 21st September 1994 and has come to an end on August 21st 2026 (which is just 1 month to our 32nd Birthday btw) and I know that in your absence it will never be the same again.

I cannot talk about life without you in it, God gave us the opportunity to walk together from Birth, to childhood, to teenage hood, to adulthood and to parenthood. we knew that at some point in our lives we would be separated and when it happened for the 1st time during each others weddings and it was not easy and we cried. And the 2nd time was when I was travelling for my studies; its was hard and we cried. But in these 2 circumstances we knew that we could still access each other through phone calls or video calls. (BUT TODAY I AM CRYING ALONE)

I choose to celebrate the 31 years 11 months we were together, you were not only beautiful but also a happy person, a true servant who loved God deeply. You opened your doors to us over and over again and never got tired of doing so. You always brought laughter even during serious conversation. You cared not only for your family but also the people around you, I have seen you go far and beyond to make sure even the less privileged are taken care of.

MARY we prayed together, shared our secrets, experiences, the small wins, pictures and memories, amazing recipes, the tough situations that we came across in life and also the small details that made our lives happy, e.g running through the market, getting lifts from Mama and Baba Lulu and how excited you were. The jokes that we shared and biblical insights and we never got tired of one another. We made plans and got really excited when we always visited each other and our parents. You celebrated my victories like your own and also carried my burden like your own. Finally, the fact that you took care of Joanne like your own baby together with your children while I was away is something I will always treasure in my heart.

Your transition has been so hard for me to process but the grace of God has and will carry me through. in the midst of all these God reminded me these 2 scriptures.

Psalms 90:12 Teach us to number our days that we gain a heart of Wisdom.

Hebrews 12:1-3 Therefore, since we are surrounded by such a great cloud of witnesses, let us throw off everything that hinders and the sin that so easily entangles. And let us Run with Perseverance the race marked out for us, fixing our eyes on Jesus, the pioneer and perfecter of Faith. For the joy set before him he endured the cross, scorning its shame and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinners, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

TRIBUTES

Tribute by Hibiscus Lane Neighbours

Wanjiru, or Mama Zuriel as we all fondly called you, You formed an important node in the loop that made our neighbourhood a community. Your presence was felt, and your absence will certainly be felt even more.

We will miss your jokes and laughter during our meetings. We will remember how you always volunteered to lead us in worship, lifting our hearts and bringing us together in God's presence. The gap you leave behind is simply too wide to fill.

We will remember the little moments too – how you would faithfully open the gate for your husband as he drove out, then majestically walk with such energy to board the car. These may have seemed like ordinary moments, but to us, they reflected the love, companionship, and devotion with which you lived your life.
You truly complemented your husband, and you were a wonderful mother to your lovely children.

To your beloved husband, Eliud, and your precious children, Zuriel and Zani, we may never fully understand why God chose to call her home this early. Our prayer is that He will surround you with His love and give you the strength and comfort to endure the enormous void her absence leaves behind.

Mama Zuriel, we will miss your laughter, your worship, your energy, and, above all, your presence among us.

We will dearly miss you, our lovely neighbour.

Fare thee well, Wanjiru.

Fare thee well, Mama Zuriel.

Until we meet again.

Tribute by Brother In LAW

Mary, where do I even begin.

Its hard to believe, hard to comprehend but one thing that gives me hope is to know you are in heaven.

You were funny, sometimes wonderfully unfunny, You were playful, prayerful, and rooted deeply in your faith, walking with the Lord in a way that shaped how you loved all of us.

You didn't just love in words. You showed it – carrying yogurt and food for shangwe (Joanna) every time you went to church. That is who you were: caring, accommodating, full of joy and happiness. Sharing a birthday with you has been a blessing. I cherish all the memories. This i hold dearly we are hard pressed but not crushed. Your have fought the good fight, you have finished the race , you have kept the faith. Rest well

🕊️ Tribute to My Sister, Mary Wanjiru

Mary, was more than just my sister; she was a beautiful part of my life and someone who brought happiness wherever she went.
Mary had a heart full of joy. She was always happy, full of jokes, and knew how to make the people around her smile, even during difficult moments. Her laughter, her sense of humour, and the way she interacted with people are memories that will remain with us forever.

As your brother, I will always cherish the special relationship we shared. One phrase I often used when speaking about her was simply "my sister." Those words may sound ordinary, but today they carry so much meaning. Saying "my sister" meant having someone I could love, joke with, talk to, and share life with.

It is difficult to understand how someone can be here with us one moment and then suddenly be gone. Your passing after such a short illness has left a deep emptiness in our hearts. We may never fully understand why you had to leave us so soon, but we are grateful for the time we were blessed to have you in our lives.
Mary, your jokes, your smile, your happiness and the memories we shared will live on in our hearts. Though I can no longer call you or see you, I will always carry the memories of the wonderful sister you were.

Rest peacefully, Mary. You are loved, you are missed, and you will never be forgotten.

Until we meet again, my sister. 🕊️❤️

TRIBUTES

Tribute by Church Youth

Today, as the church youth, we stand together with heavy hearts to say goodbye to a woman who meant so much to us. It is still difficult to believe that you are no longer with us. Your passing has left a deep emptiness in our hearts, and it feels like a painful dream we wish we could wake up from.

You were more than our teacher. You were our mentor, our guide, our encourager, and mother figure to many of us. You taught us not only about faith and the Word of God, but also about love, kindness, respect, patience, and how to live in a way that pleases God.

As church youth, we will forever be grateful for the time you invested in us. You listened to us when needed someone, corrected us when we went astray, encouraged us when we felt weak, and celebrated our progress. Your words, prayers, guidance and example shaped many of our lives in ways we may never be able to fully express.

Your impact on us will never be forgotten. The lessons you taught us, the memories we shared, and the love you showed us will remain in our hearts. Even though you have left the earthly life, the seeds you planted in us will continue to grow.

We promise to carry forward the values you taught us and to live a way that honours the beautiful legacy you have left behind.

Whenever we gather as the church youth, we will remember your smile, your teachings, your encouragement and the love you had for us.

We thank God for giving us the privilege of knowing you and learning from you. Though our hearts are broken, we find the comfort in knowing that you are resting in the arms of the Lord.

Rest in Peace,

our beloved teacher, Mentor and Mother Figure.

You may be gone from our sight, but you will never be gone from our hearts.

Tribute by Cousin

In Loving Memory of Mary Wanjiru Mburu 🕊️❤️

Mary was more than my cousin; we were raised together like sisters, we called each other "bestie". She was bold, funny, outspoken and our family spokesperson. She could turn even the simplest moment into laughter.

I can still hear her saying, "Makosa imefanyika kidogo..." or starting a story with, "reke ngwire," How I wish I could hear those words one more time.

One memory that still makes us smile is when Mary and her twin Rose, as little girls, used the red polish meant for floors as their makeup—putting it on their nails and lips until their faces were red! Those are the beautiful memories we will treasure forever.

Mary, our family trips and Christmas will never be the same without your laughter and presence.

To your husband, may God give him strength, peace and comfort as he carries the memories of the life you built together. To your twin Rose, may God give you a special kind of peace and strength. And to your precious children, Zuriel and Zani, we will tell you the stories of your Mum—her courage, humour, love and the joy she brought to our family. ❤️

"Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord... they will rest from their labor, for their deeds will follow them." – Revelation 14:13

The family may have lost its spokesperson, but your voice, laughter and memories will remain with us.

Forever in our hearts, Mary Wanjiru Mburu. 🕊️❤️

Until we meet again, Bestie.

TRIBUTES

Tribute by friends

Mary was a rare soul—an incredible friend. She celebrated every victory with us, serving as the loudest voice cheering us on with endless laughter. She was a true servant leader who elevated everyone around her.

In children's ministry, Mary carefully instilled godly values in young hearts, patiently guiding them and teaching them Bible verses and worship songs that they proudly presented to the congregation. If you called her at the last minute, needing someone to stand in the gap, she would be there without hesitation, excuse, or complaint. You could count on her in every way.

Her virtue showed up in every corner of her life. As our group treasurer, her faithfulness, integrity, and absolute reliability were second to none. Yet beyond her titles, Mary was the kind of friend everyone prays for—someone who listened with deep understanding and stood by you when it mattered most.

If you really wanted to understand Mary, you just had to watch her in the kitchen. She didn't just cook; she hosted an event. Making the best chapatis, vegetable rice, and endless delicacies, her hospitality was legendary. It didn't matter if you were a lifelong friend or a neighbor stopping by—a warm cup of tea and a welcome smile were ready within five minutes.

For all her strength and seriousness of purpose, Mary brought light and laughter wherever she walked. She had a wonderful gift for finding comedy in almost anything, reminding us not to take ourselves too seriously and helping us find joy even on heavy days.

Her life was a masterclass in organization and maternal devotion. During church announcements, she would step out with her signature "daddy walking style," followed closely by Zuriel, Shangwe, and Zani. She would lead them straight to the mini-hall, lining them up to feed them all simultaneously with effortless grace before gathering with us for our after-church camaraderie.

Mary lived with purpose, loved without condition, and served with joy. Her laughter, her leadership, her faithful friendship, and her unwavering light leave a legacy that is forever imprinted on our hearts.

A Tribute to our dear Friend and Colleague, Mary

Today, we gather with heavy hearts to remember and celebrate the life of our dear friend and colleague, Mary.

Mary was more than just a colleague. She was a friend, a source of encouragement, and a person whose presence made a difference in the lives of everyone fortunate enough to know her. Her kindness, warmth, generosity and willingness to support others left a lasting impression on all of us.

In the workplace, Mary was someone we could count on. She brought not only her dedication and commitment, but also a spirit of togetherness that made those around her feel valued and appreciated. She had a special way of making people feel heard, respected and cared for.

Her impact went far beyond her work. She touched people's lives through her words, her actions, her laughter and the simple moments she shared with those around her. Many of us carry memories of her that we will treasure for the rest of our lives.

Although it is difficult to accept that Mary is no longer with us, we can find comfort in knowing that the mark she left on our lives will never disappear. The lessons she taught us, the kindness she showed us, and the memories we created with her will continue to live on.

Mary, thank you for being a wonderful friend, colleague and human being. Thank you for the lives you touched and the difference you made. You may no longer walk beside us, but your memory will forever remain in our hearts.

Rest peacefully, Mary. You will be deeply missed, lovingly remembered, and forever cherished.

May your soul rest in eternal peace.

TRIBUTES

TRIBUTE FROM THE PARENTS MR. PETER MBURU MBUGUA & MRS SUSAN

Mary was the first born of all our children and was born on September 21st 1994 together with her twin sister Rose Wairimu. Her other siblings are Daniel Robert Mbugua Mburu and Michael Joseph Thuo Mburu. Mary was an obedient child from birth save for the usual normal chickiness of young ones. She was also bright girl as she went through her nursery education smoothly without any interruptions. Her teachers never called us to school and passed with upper grades which enabled her and the sister who also passed well, to enrol in Gitwe secondary school. Interestingly as twins their marks were always either equal or with plus or minus to difference. While at home she displayed leadership skills by assisting the parents in house chores, washing clothes and other necessary duties girls are given by parents to prepare them for self-care future.

When she joined secondary school she started displaying other gifts by becoming a member of the Christian Union worship team. This made us very proud knowing that she is following the ways of Jesus Christ by being in His fellowship. Mary continued to excel in her studies from form one all the way to completion. During the school holidays we were very glad to receive them back as they were now mature enough even to assist the mother to cook palatable food that the family enjoyed. She would then with the sister ensure the cutleries are clean though in some instances with a little push.

She completed her four year secondary education and passed with good grades that enabled her to join the famous St. Paul's University. In campus she was known by her colleagues to have a lot of humour that would send her friends cracking their ribs. She later would light every room she entered. This honour continued even in to her adulthood years and all including her family would look forward to her presence. In the university years we were elated that they would learn and head home on a daily basis. This would assist us a lot as we could leave and visit our friends as she and her twin sister were available and obedient. Since they were now going to campus without uniforms and in their home clothes, they would confuse whoever saw them as they would always buy and wear similar clothes. So even us as parents would at times be confused as to who is who.

We would even during parents pillow talk argue....."Wee wonire Mary tari uriku? nii nyonire tari we umana kiria, thinguri"....aca ucio ni Rose . nitukamarora rucini matari makeup.....

After she completed university education again she passed with flying colours and joining the working class where she got as we heard, a good position. Later she was betrothed by Eliud Ng'ang'a and joined the marriage world. We were happy for her and the husband as she started a new home away from us for the first time in February of 2020. Later we saw our 2 grandchildren and the rest as they say was history. What can we say, we can say much until the cows come home. It has really grieved our hearts as parents to see her go in that way but we thank God that she gave us grandchildren and a great son in law with an extended family that shall remind us of her every time we see them.

Fare thee well our first love daughter.

TRIBUTE BY SISTER-IN-LAW

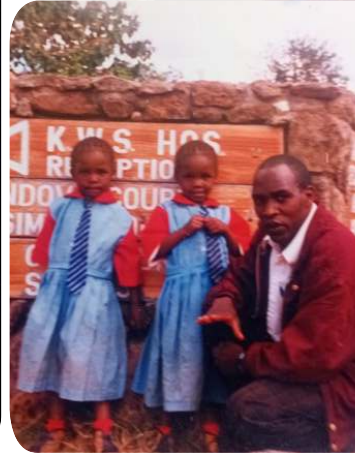

To my wonderful sister (in law), Mary.
We gather to honour a woman of profound grace, faith, and love.
To the world, she was my sister-in-law.
To my heart, she was the sister I never had.
For six beautiful years, she was the heartbeat of my brother's life. A devoted wife and mother. Their marriage was a true partnership, built on deep love and shared laughter.
Together, they brought two beautiful children (Zuriel and Zani) into this world.
As a mother, she was patient, gentle, and fiercely loving. She poured her soul into her kids, and her love will live on in them.
Though our time together was far too short, the gift of her presence was monumental.
We find comfort in knowing she is now resting in the arms of our saviour, Jesus Christ.
Blessed be the name of the Lord.
Rest in peace my sister. Untill we meet again

IN CHRIST ALONE MY HEART IS FOUND

In Christ alone my hope is found,
He is my light, my strength, my song;
This Cornerstone, this solid Ground,
Firm through the fiercest drought and storm.
What heights of love, what depths of peace,
When fears are stilled, when strivings cease!
My Comforter, my All in All,
Here in the love of Christ I stand.

In Christ alone! – who took on flesh,
Fullness of God in helpless babe.
This gift of love and righteousness,
Scorned by the ones He came to save:
Till on that cross as Jesus died,
The wrath of God was satisfied –
For every sin on Him was laid;
Here in the death of Christ I live.

There in the ground His body lay,
Light of the world by darkness slain;
Then bursting forth in glorious day
Up from the grave He rose again!
And as He stands in victory
Sin's curse has lost its grip on me,
For I am His and He is mine –
Bought with the precious blood of Christ.

No guilt in life, no fear in death,
This is the power of Christ in me;
From life's first cry to final breath,
Jesus commands my destiny.
No power of hell, no scheme of man,
Can ever pluck me from His hand:
Till He returns or calls me home,
Here in the power of Christ I'll stand.
